

World War Two

English

Letters from the lighthouse

Looking at and creating war poetry - focusing on personification

Writing letters as Olive and Cliff to their mum.

Direct and indirect (reported) speech.

Simple, compound and complex sentences

Maths

Interpreting graphs and tables

Factors of numbers

Prime numbers, Squared numbers, Cubed numbers

Perimeter and Area

Art

Use charcoal inspired by Henry Moore - looking at perspective. Creating newspaper collages and creating poppies with various techniques.

History

Looking at World War 2, including key themes such as Britain at war - the home front and Christmas for Children on the home front.

Computing

What is video?
Identifying different filming techniques, using a story board and creating and analysing own videos.

PE

Indoor athletics such as speed bounce and foam javelin.
Swimming and water safety.

Geography

Mountains around the world and in Great Britain.

Looking at how they are formed and key features. With focus on the Himalayas.

RE

Peace

Finding peace for myself

Peace across different religions

Design and Technology

Making a pop-up book based on either nursery rhymes or Harry Potter

Science

Material World

Looking at different objects around us and identifying their properties.

Planning and conducting an experiment to identify the strongest carrier bag.

Looking at soluble and insoluble solutions (dissolving)

Personal Development

Celebrating Differences

Including my own and others' cultures.

Music

Playing the recorder and singing Christmas favourites.

Spanish

Presenting myself - Me Presento. Where I live, my name, my age, my life.